

Contact: Rafael Marques
Chicago Climate Exchange
+1 312 554 3384
rmarques@chicagoclimateexchange.com

Chicago Climate Futures Exchange[®] Announces New Record for Daily Volume for Carbon Financial Instrument[®] (CFI[®]) futures

(Chicago – May 28, 2008) Chicago Climate Futures Exchange (CCFE[®]), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Chicago Climate Exchange, Inc. (CCX[®]), announced today that on May 27, 2008, CCFE established a new record for total daily volume in CCFE Carbon Financial Instrument[®] (CFI[®]) futures, with 622 contracts traded (622,000 metric tons CO₂). Along with the new record yesterday for total daily volume, weekly volume for the CCFE CFI futures contract exceeded 1 million mt tons CO₂e for the first time, with 1,063 contracts traded last week.

CCFE CFI futures and options have traded 9,359 contracts year-to-date in 2008, versus 3,566 contracts traded in 2007.

For a complete list of products please visit: http://ccfe.com/about_ccfe/products.html

For complete price, volume and open interest information please visit http://www.ccfe.com/mktdata_ccfe/index.jsf

For more information on obtaining access to CCFE products, please visit www.ccfe.com or contact Michael MacGregor at 312 229 5122 or Dan Scarbrough at 312 229 5129